Mae A Brown

January 12, 1935 - August 18, 2020

Mae A. Brown was born in Orlando, Florida on January 12, 1935. She was the oldest of four children to the late Major Trueblood and Annie Strickland. She was proceeded in death by her husband Earnest Brown and son Eric Brown.

Mae gave her life to Christ once moving to Saint Louis, Missouri and found her church home at Liberty Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Obadiah Jones. She served on the board/Health Unit and the Usher Board. After leadership change from Reverend Obadiah Jones to his son Bishop Arthur L. Jones and the name change to Liberty Community Worship Center, she continue to serve faithfully on the Usher Board and Liberty's Outreach Food Pantry. Mae retired from Peitros after 30 years of service as a cook in 1997.

Mae leaves to cherish her wonderful memory: children Anette Hampton, Deborah Hampton, Eleanor Thompson, Eugene Hampton Jr., Eddie Brown and Lisa (Kenneth) Brown, two brothers Milton Ellerson Robert Ellerson, one sister Anecia Scott, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and her dear friends William and Carol Davis and Family.
