Johnny Lee Howard-Jones was born April 17, 1955, to Odell and Jola Howard Sr. in Hughes, Arkansas. He was the third of eleven children. His parent Odell and Jola Howard Sr. , his grandparents Julius Thomas, and Ethel Bell Seymore, Lawrence and Buhla Jones, his daughters, Christine Howard and Brandy Veal, all preceded him in death. Johnny was educated at Mildred Jackson elementary school in Hughes, Arkansas, until his family moved to St. Louis, Missouri In 1964, then he attended Dozier elementary and graduated from Soldan high (home of the tigers). He played football for Soldan and from there he played for the St. Louis City Cowboys football league (semi pro) and also tried out for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he was self-employed as a carpenter for over 30 years.

Johnny gave his life to Christ. He was baptized and became a member of Faith Miracle Church and sang with the gospel group (Amazing Grace The Anointed) he met Nina Boyd in 2008 and they were together for many years and were engaged to be married in 2021.

Johnny had a big sense of humor, horse playing and memories with his nieces, nephews and cousin, some of his best known playful things to do was to grab their wrist and squeeze it until they said uncle, he was best known for picking them up and throwing them in the pool, but they truly loved their uncle.

“ I can't say enough about Jhonny. He kept us laughing. He and I would playfully sing together. He came to my home and sang for my Dads birthday. He Adored his mom and Nina. He will be terribly missed.

“ To know Uncle Johnny is to love him cause god knows this man can play a whole lot. Y'all know those same hands he would squeeze our wrist and hands with, he built the best playground set we ever played on as a kid. Whew as a kid he would throw us in the air so high I promise I seen the gates to heaven . His strength was crazy and half the time he didn't know it he would snatch on you and almost send you the across street. I know for a fact he done said Mah a million times up there in my granny face asking her to cook this and that. She done said “ Johnny why dnt you shut up!” Naw but frl Uncle Johnny u did a number on us like you really hit us hard man. I love you and you will be missed 🙏 Get yo rest
