

Marnice Adams

January 18, 1991 - January 23, 2018

Marnice Shellrice Adams was born January 18, 1991 to her parents Maurice Adams and Shirley Ann Hampton. Her brothers (Willie Hampton, Antonio Evans) grandmothers (Cynthia Currie, Penny Adams) and uncles Nathaniel Currie, Melvin Adams) preceded her in death. Marnice attended to St. Louis public school district but had to cut her high school education short so welcome my beautiful baby girl into this world but that didn't stop her from getting in education so she received her GED.

Marnice had a very uplifting and goofy personality making everyone that came into contact with her feel welcome and love. You knew when Marnice was around you by her very loud and goofy laugh, she would say things like "hey fave" or "what's the word" to greet you, "pop out" to see you, or " I can't believe that" to agree with you. Marnice was very laid-back and loved everybody especially her daughter Shamarie. Marnice became a mother at an early age but that didn't stop her from living and enjoying life, she was really one-of-a-kind, very humble but didn't play when he came to the ones she cared about If you called her she came and she didn't ask any questions. Marnice was very family oriented she loved being around her family there is no place you wouldn't to see her and when she came she came to stay making it nearly impossible to put her out, but above it all Marnice was Marnice she didn't fake or sugarcoat anything with anybody if she had something to say she said it. She had a few nicknames to people but to her mother she was known as "baby girl."

Marnice departed from her flesh January 23, 2018 five days after celebrating her 27th birthday. She leaves to cherish her Mother (Shirley Ann), Dad (Maurice), her daughter (Shamarie), her sister (Antoinette), five siblings from her Dad (Latrice, Maurice Jr., Mallorie, Shellie, Jordan), six aunts (Donza, Nicole, Darlene, Shellie (Anthony), Tameka, Jamie) three uncles (Charles, Conyade, Tywon) nephew (Derris), niece (Anijah), and a host other nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends that will miss.
