

Annette Ivy Lindsey

November 20, 1948 - May 6, 2017

Annette Ivy Lindsey was born November 20, 1948 to the late Arthur Ivy and Laura Lee Ivy of Macon, Mississippi.

Annette accepted Christ at an early age. She was a faithful servant, loving mother, dutiful daughter, and a constant friend. She was born and raised in Macon, Mississippi. Annette graduated B. F. Lindell High School in 1967. Afterward she attended Mary Holmes Jr. College in WestPoint, Mississippi.

She made a move to Saint Louis, Missouri where she continued her education at Harris Stowe State University. She received a Bachelors Degree in Education and taught at various schools throughout the Saint Louis Public School district.

She united with the Olivet Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late R. T. Davis in which she taught Sunday school and served on the Mission Board. She later joined Christ Southern Mission until her health failed.

Annette departed this world May 6, 2017 at St. Louis University Hospital surrounded by her loved ones. She was preceded in death by her Mother Laura Lee Ivy and Father Arthur Ivy along with her half sister Arie B. Ivy.

She leaves to cherish her legacy by one aunt (Eula Bass). Her son (Fitzgerald Lamont Echols) and two daughters (Jacobie Smith and Bridget Ivy) all of Saint Louis, Missouri. She has five brothers Wille Ivy (Sherry) O.C. Ivy (Elzena), James Ivy, Benny Ivy all from Macon, Mississippi and Julius Ivy of St. Louis, Missouri and a half brother (Arthur Ivy Jr.) of Meridian, Mississippi; along with two sisters Jeanette Ivy of Saint Louis, Missouri and Frances Wallace (Lou) of Bartlett, IL. Six grandchildren Deionsha, Deja, Kamariah, Darian, Christopher, and Christian Carter. With a host of nieces and nephews and friends.

Cemetery Details

Laurel Hill

2000 Pennsylvania Ave
St Louis, MO 63133

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 18. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Leonard Missionary Baptist Church
1100 North Compton
St Louis, MO 63106

Service

MAY 18. 11:00 AM (CT)

Leonard Missionary Baptist Church
1100 North Compton
St Louis, MO 63106