Let not your hearts be troubled

Let not your hearts be in pain

“ *Tracey, Anthony and Carl,
We are aware that words cannot heal, nor fill the emptiness your hearts must feel, especially after having lost your dad such a short time ago. I know that if Gary had left many, many years ago, it would not have prepared you for the loss of your mother. We are never prepared to lose those we hold so dear.
Please know that we are sending tons of love and big hugs to all of you and praying that in good time, you will be able to get together and laugh at all the comical things your parents did or said. Imagine what heaven is like now that the entire family is there. I can only imagine.
Hang in there and hang together. May joy and peace reside in your hearts and homes.*
