

Mr. Bernard Carr

August 10, 1950 - February 6, 2015

Bernard Carr was born on August 10, 1950. He was the only child born to Mary Carr and Stonewall Martin. He was raised in a Christian household under the loving influence of his grandparents, William McKinley and Ethel Carr and surrounded by loving aunts and uncles. Bernard was an only child but was more of a big brother and uncle to his over 100 cousins. He had a way of making all of his cousins feel special. He also served as a protector for all of his family. Bernard loved people. He was a loyal and dedicated family member and friend. He did not meet strangers he made others feel welcomed and he was the life of the party.

Bernard had a particularly close relationship with his mother. Even when he was in the hospital he called her every day at 11:00 in the morning. He loved his sons Bernard and Arron unconditionally. His son Bernard (aka Pooh) preceded him in death. The love and joy of his life were his grandchildren - Asia, Joshua, Jamori, Aaryana, and Dallis and his great-grandson Damori. It has been said that if you have one friend you are blessed, Bernard had a group of "forever" friends that have been like brothers to him from childhood. Bernard attended Sumner high school and served honorably in the United States Army. He worked at Chrysler auto manufacturing for over 20 years. Bernard battled a variety of health issues for several years, but even in his illness he was always faithful, loving and committed to his family. He was also appreciative and pleasant to the hospital staff that cared for him. He maintained hope and a fighting spirit until the very end. He departed this side of life on Friday, February 6th.

Bernard was a personification of unconditional love. He will be greatly missed.

“ *My sympathy to the family. I have known the Carr family since 1954 and have remained in touch for all these years. Take comfort in knowing Bernard's battle has ended and he is at peace now. My heart goes out to all of you.
