

Ms. Bobbie Jean Mickens

April 1, 1941 - February 7, 2015

Bobbie Jean Mickens was born, April 1, 1942, in Brooksville, Mississippi. She was the second eldest daughter of the late Richard Mickens and Ada Lewis. Four brothers and her elder sister preceded her in death. She received her elementary and secondary education in the Noxubee County, Mississippi public school system. In high school, she was recognized as one of the best basketball players on the court.

Bobbie served as a faithful and active member of The Second Baptist Church of Brooksville, Mississippi before relocating to Saint Louis. Most recently, she has attended the Kingdom Hall on Park Avenue in Saint Louis. She has been a loving, caring and devoted mother to her only son, James Patrick Clay.

Bobbie found gainful employment in the manufacturing industry where she worked as a inspector and live assembler for the Segal Roberts Company until its closed.

Bobbie's friendly and easy going demeanor allowed her to have a special relationship with both family and friends. She loved her family and showed it through both expression and action.

Bobbie departed this life on February 7, 2015, and leaves to cherish fond memories of her life: her son, James Patrick Clay (Lisa); her dedicatd, supportive and care giving sister, Darlene Mixon of Brooksville, Mississippi; a host of nephews, nieces, great nephews and great nieces, along with many friends.
