Lon Ollie Denton and Annie Mae Myles-Jones were blessed with the arrival of their son, Bobby Earl Myles on Saturday, January 11, 1964, in Dundee, Mississippi, he was born the oldest of nine children. His parents instilled in them the importance of family and always be there for one another; to know Bobby was to love him. Leaving to remember times of laughter, conversations, and memories for his remaining siblings, Ruby, Clarence Jr., James, Gregory, ShelRhonda, Marcus, Alex, and Tomeka. He was preceded in death by his mother Annie Myles-Jones and his stepfather Clarence Jones Sr. Bobby received his formal education through the St. Louis public school system. He attended O'Fallon Tech and received his certification in Automotive Mechanics.

Bobby was employed at National Alamo/Enterprise Rental Company. He was a dedicated worker until his health failed.

Bobby was united in Holy Matrimony to Kathy Johnson-Myles, on November 7, 2014. They have been together for eighteen years and were blessed with four stepsons, Lavon, Cortez, Phillip, and Delvin.

Bobby was truly a family man. He valued his family with the utmost respect, with the highest regards, a legacy that will be cherished forever. He enjoyed listening to music, Bobby's favorite song was, "You're The First, The Last My Everything" by Barry White.
