She was a devoted and dutiful mother. Connie and Big Kenny shared over 60 years of love and planted roots in Rock Hill, Missouri. During this time, she made the most important decision in life, which was to accept Christ as her personal savior.

Connie was employed by Western Electric later known as Lucent Technologies where she enjoyed a successful and dynamic career. She participated in companywide activities including creating a company cookbook, she took her grandchildren and the neighborhood children to work on "bring a child to work day. She organized Night-Out events on Rockman Place and was always the life of the party. She enjoyed spending time with her family, traveling, and making new friends wherever she went. Her very special bond with her two grandsons was a testimony to her legacy of love. Connie's footprint of love, compassion,
