

Deborah Pate

October 21, 1956 - March 26, 2014

Deborah Pate was known by her friends and family as "Red". She was a very lively person who enjoyed having a good time. She was always quick to smile or relay a funny story. Her family was very close knit and most of her time was spent with her brother, Leonard, and her baby sister Cookie.

Deborah Margarita Pate was born to the union of Manley and Helen Pate on October 21, 1956. She was a happy child and loved music. She took piano lessons at Black's School Of Music. She attended Sumner High School. She professed a love of Christ and attended the Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Elder Ball. She later was to unite with Glory Temple under the leadership of Pastor Joseph T. Merritt.

Deborah made the transition from labor to reward on March 13, 2014 at approximately 4:00 a.m. Her grandmother, Leona Brice, her uncle, Harold Brice, Her father, Manley Pate, her brothers Gregory and Walter Pate, nephews Devonte and Leonard Pate Jr. precede her in death. She leaves to cherish her memories: mother, Helen Sharp, brothers, Manual and Leonard Pate Wayne and Raynard Crowley, Michael Mure and Paul Charleston sisters Mary Jane camp Shirley Mungo, sue Charleston and Delisa "cookie" pate, nephews Taylor and Damien pate nieces Shamoniece and Shamika pate Mylene camp and a host of family and friends

Cemetery Details

Laurel Hill

2000 Pennsylvania Ave
St Louis, MO 63133