

Delores Ann ABanner

March 6, 1955 - April 2, 2015

Delores Ann Banner was born on March 6, 1955 in St. Louis, Missouri to Reverend Verzell Banner Sr. And Georgia (Calhoun) Cosby. Delores, who was affectionately called Ann, was the third of six children. She attended Kossuth Baptist Church of God in Christ in her younger years and was baptized there. She was educated at Blewett School and attended Vashon High School in St. Louis, Missouri.

Ann was a free spirit and a caring, friendly person. She made friends everywhere she went. She was also the best cook in the family of the siblings and was called upon often to cook for various events and holidays.

Ann worked at the Record Center in her late teens, and work for several years at Anheuser-Busch Company, where she left to raise her seven children. Ann was married for a time to Eugene Evans, to which union Patrice Evans was born.

Ann love to party, love music and loved her “drank.” She was always ready with the smile, a hug, and a nickname for you. She was also a hard worker. Whenever there was a real work to be done, Ann would step up to the plate to do her share. She often help with the care of her grandson's Bruce and Jeremiah after their father, her son was killed.

At the end of her mother's life, and stayed with her and took care of her until her last breath. Our family will always be grateful to Ann for being able to make that sacrifice and give mom 24/7 care and love.

Ann left us on Thursday, April 2, 2015 to be with the Lord. Both of her parents and her baby sister and three brothers preceded her in death-Francesca White, Anthony White, Michael Banner and Verzell Banner Jr. Ann's firstborn son, Bruce, also preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved daughter's, Yolanda Banner Wilson (Kevin), Patrice Evans, Sophia Banner and Taylor Ollivierre; her son's Damion White and Jermaine White; her sister Kathe Lynom (Lucious); 11 grandchildren-Bruce, Jeremiah Lakeitra, Desiree, Kelton, Nakia, Naheim, Malik and Jermaine Jr., Darrell and Terrell, and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
