“ *Life Reflections
Of George Allen Jr.*

George Allen Jr. was affectionately known as Junior or Mug. George was born on December 10th, 1959 in St. Louis, Missouri to George Allen, Sr and Marie Allen. He was the third of four children born to this union. George Jr. was preceded in death by his father, George Sr. George attended school at Gundlach Elementary and Beaumont High School. He was baptized at an early age at North Galilee Missionary Baptist Church, along with his older siblings. George was always the life of the party. He loved to laugh and make others laugh as well. Like his father, George Sr., he was an excellent cook and offered food to any and every one who stopped by. Like his mother Marie, he had a heart of gold and would help anyone he could.

George leaves to cherish his memory with laughter all who knew and loved him including his Mother, Marie Allen of Atlanta, GA., one daughter, Janell Reed and grand-daughter Kamryn Reed of St. Louis, Mo., one brother, Stanton Allen of St. Louis. Mo., two sisters Pamela Rudolph (Joe) and Angela Allen of Atlanta, GA., one nephew Joey Moody of St. Louis, Mo. several aunts and uncles, numerous closely knitted cousins, a special friend, Kimberly Johnson and a host of other friends and acquaintances.

“ *From his daughter Janell:
I'll miss your laugh & the way you made me laugh. I'll miss your jokes about everything. I'll miss your cooking and the way you knew how to have a good time. I'll miss listening to old school music, our funny arguments and how proud you were to be a grandfather. I'll miss our phone calls, the way only the two of us could talk our shit! I'll miss the funniest man I'll ever know. I'll miss my daddy.*

From his brother Stan:

George always made sure I ate well and made sure I got in bed because he could tell when I was tired and he knew I would nod off in a minute. He made the best 'mystery' stews, using anything and everything from the refrigerator and pantry but my favorite was his homemade Ramen noodle soup with vegetables. I will miss my little brother.

From his big sister Pamela:

Jr. dogged his sisters out about their cooking and bragged, rightfully so, that he could outcook them. He made the best smothered potatoes. I'll miss talking to him – he kept me updated on all the happenings with everyone we knew in St. Louis.

From his baby sister Angela:

*When I was young, everywhere I went, people would say “Hey Lil' Mug” because of our resemblance and because everybody knew him. Oooh, I hated being called Lil' Mug. Last time I was in St.
Louis, Jr. made me the best tasting pork chop I have had in my life!
Miss your laughter already! I can't believe my brother is gone!*

“ Junior, as we all called him, was a fun loving nephew and was always the fun of any family gathering. I made us laugh and was always a joy to be around. The entire family is going to miss him dearly, but he will always be in my memory. May God Bless my entire family during this difficult period. I had spoken to Junior at least twice each week during his last 8 weeks here on earth. I thoroughly enjoyed being on the phone with him, and he always gave me words of encouragement. May he rest in peace. Uncle Hewitt & Dornell Chatman, Plant City, FL.
