

Henry D Orr

February 28, 1942 - September 23, 2023

Henry was born Henry Douglas Orr on February 28, 1942, in Scotland, Mississippi to his late parents Azzie McGee and Theron Orr. He was the youngest of seven children. His siblings include Princelee (Ross) Orr, Lonnie Orr, Maxine (Smith) Orr, James Orr, Frances (White) Orr, and Aaron Orr. He was preceded in death by his sister Princelee, and brothers James, Lonnie and Aaron.

Henry was raised in West Memphis, Arkansas but left his family at a young age and moved to St. Louis, Missouri where he met Louise Taylor. Henry and Louise were united in matrimony in 1966, but later separated.

Henry was educated in the Mississippi public school system and held various jobs of employment. However, he was most proud of his plumbing career with Orr's Plumbing where he worked under his big brother Aaron.

Henry loved hanging out with his family and friends, hunting, fishing, playing cards, and shooting pool. He was always the life of the party and known for his sense of humor and telling funny stories.

On Saturday, September 23rd 2023 Henry D. Orr departed this earth. He leaves behind three children, Lisa Orr, Lynena Orr, and Victor Davis; two sisters, Maxine and Frances; six grandchildren, Joshua McGee, Christopher Orr, and Seddrick Orr, Tonjon Davis, Naazon Davis, Jahuan Davis; six great-grandchildren, and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Henry had a special affection for his nephew Lonnie Jr. who he often spoke of and reminisced funny stories.

No farewell words were spoken, there was no time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. We will always carry your memory in our heart.
