

Jacklyn Thomas

May 24, 1981 - February 18, 2023

Jacklyn Denise Thomas was born May 24, 1981, to proud parents Lucinda Webster and Lougene Thomas Jr. in Saint Louis, Missouri. Jacklyn attended and graduated from Vashon High School in 1999. After high school, she landed a job as a housekeeper supervisor and health care worker.

Jacklyn brought joy and happiness to everyone she was around. She kept a smile on her face no matter what. She loved to cook, travel, and spend time with family, and she attended every concert.

Jackie was a funny person. She was caring, if you needed a place to sleep she always had a place, if you wanted to have a party, her house was the place to go. She was always willing to take a risk for her family, she was the ride or die type. She was a great mother, and she did a wonderful job raising her four children Destiny, Diamond, Damond, and Demarion. She had a great role model, her mother Lucinda. She had two sisters that she was inseparable from. Even from afar their bond will never be broken. She loved all her brothers, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Jacklyn leaves behind to cherish her memories: four children, Destiny, Diamond, Damond, and Demarion, her mother Lucinda, two sisters, Jennifer and Carma, her brothers, Deandre, Terry, Lougene, and Jerrikua; her fiancé Rory, her grandchild Da'Nyiah; Stepdad Jr., a host of nieces, nephews, a great nephew, a host of relatives, and longtime friendships. She will be truly missed by everyone.
