

Janice Lynn White

March 20, 1964 - January 14, 2015

Janice Lynn White was born March 20, 1964 in Saint Louis, Missouri, to Richard White and Ozell Roby White. She was the tenth child of thirteen children that were born to this union. Her parents and three of her sisters precede her in death: Linda Gonzalez, Gloria Strong, and Marilyn Crosby.

Janice was affectionately called by her middle name “Lynn” by her family and close friends. Lynn was a person who always had a warm smile and a gentle demeanor. Even though she was baptized at an early age, she later redirected her life to Christ at The First Church of God and Christ in Richmond Heights, Missouri where she remained a member until her sunset.

After high school, Lynn went on to complete an Associates of Health Science degree from St. Louis Community College at Forest Park. For several years she proudly maintained a career in the medical field as a laboratory technician first for Central Medical Center and later for American Red Cross. She enjoyed helping her colleagues, and strongly believed in teamwork, thus she received many accolades and acknowledgements for her leadership roles and quality standards at work. In 2005, she retired from American Red Cross.

Some of her hobbies included watching scary movies, long conversations with family members, and reading. She was a loving soul who always put family first, and was more than willing to make necessary sacrifices for loved ones.

Indeed, she was a generous, sincere, compassionate, and spiritual woman who took pride in being an asset of all kinds to many different people. Often she would reference the saying, "For if I have helped someone while on this earth, then my living has not been in vain." A giver in life and even in death, the last honor she received was from the MidAmerican Transplant Centers for the donation of her organs and skin tissue, a bronze medal was granted.

Lynn was especially found of children. She often tutored and mentored the youth in the church, local school district, and of course her beloved family. Undeniably, she always remained a reliable loving sister and aunt who enjoyed story telling, quality family time and laughter. Lynn was truly a special person; because she faithfully served a purpose, during the life span she was granted. However, on January 14, 2015 this amazing soul was called home to be in the presence of the Lord. Lynn's journey continues as she transcends into what we knew she always was, one of God's angels, and we are blessed to have her smiling down and watching over us.

Lynn's memories will be forever cherished by her family: sisters, Inetta Blalock, Demaries Perry, Elaine Batteast, Donetta Key-Poole (Taylor), Bobbie Joyce White, Kimberly White and Monica Chapman (Brian); brothers: Richard White (Kathy) and Sanford White; God-daughters (nieces) Brittnee white and Hannah Hayden as well as an abundance of nephews, nieces, cousins, extended relatives and friends.

“ Today is one of those days Lynn. I miss you so much sometimes it feels like my heart is going to burst out of my chest. Doing life with a broken heart is not for the weak. It's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you. You meant everything to me. I know there were times I didn't show it enough or do everything I was supposed to, but Lynn I loved and appreciated you. Thank you for all the wisdom, all the support, all the love and loyalty. I am forever grateful to you and for everything you taught me. I just wish I could hug you and talk to you once more.
I carry your spirit with me in this journey of life and until we meet again my angel. 🕊️🙏💕

“ Hey Lynn,

Missing you so much today and thinking of you all the time. Your love was so unique, strong, and more genuine than anything I have ever experienced. Thank you for knowing and doing better and teaching me better. I know how to love because of you.

Been having a tough time lately and my spirit has been incredibly low, but guess what Lynn...I'm praying my way all the way through it, and I know God's got me. I just wish you were here with me, but you are in such a better place than this lowly earth. It's lonely and hard down here. Nevertheless, I count my blessings everyday. As you always said, "it's not going to be like this forever" - sometimes that's the only thing that keeps me going. It reminds me to have patience and keep trusting God.

Love you for eternity and I keep your memory and spirit alive always. ☐ 🙏🏻

“ Happy heavenly birthday Lynn! ☐ 🥺🙏❤️🙏
You would have been 61 today...the time is flying. You came to me in my dream last night, so I know you hear me and you know how much I miss you everyday. I go on Lynn, but it's so hard. I'm walking with God every step of the way though. Thank you for always being a good person, taking pride in doing right by people and loving them. You are loved, missed, and your memory will always be cherished.

I'm walking it down Lynn and I know you are by side every step of the way. Thank You a million times. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

Love,
Brittnee Lauren

“ My sweet Lynn...where has 10 years gone?...it still feels like yesterday. I miss you more than I can put into words. A lot has changed since you have been gone, but I'm trusting in God to see me through all things. The older I get the more I think and act like you. I understand now Lynn - everything you taught me and all the advice. I know you have been watching over me, I thank you for being my angel, for all the love and loyalty, and just being my number one fan my whole life. I will see you again Lynn....i know I will. ☐☐☐

You were simply the best 🙏🙏🙏

“ Happy 60th birthday Lynn! ☐☐☐

We would have been having a ball today. I'm going to put on for you anyway. I miss you more than anyone will ever know. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you or remember your gentle soul. Thank you for always believing in me and loving me beyond measure. You were a helping hand to so many and you didn't hesitate to share your gifts and knowledge with others. I get that from you....i could write a book about you and I, so I'll stop for now, again....happiest of heavenly birthdays to you Lynn. ❤️🕊️

“ 9 years later and I still miss and need you more than ever. Lynn, I thank you for always loving me unconditionally. Your spirit and good will is unmatched. You made me independent at a young age and now I know why, that’s what life is about, self reliance. As you would always say, “life goes on.” I understand now.

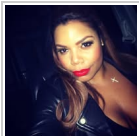

You were everything that you knew how to be, to me, thank you for giving me your best. I’m going to keep making you proud. I love you and miss you forever. ❤️🕊️❤️🕊️ my angel.

“ Lynn, where has the time gone? I miss you each and every day. Life is just not the same....sometimes it feels surreal. I laugh, cry, and smile all at the same time when I think about some of the things you used to say and do. Truly one of a kind, with the best spirit. U always made people feel warm, accepted, and loved. That was one of the many gifts the Lord blessed you with. I'm tryin more and more to walk in my faith and purpose. You inspire me more than you know. Forever my heart, I carry you with me through it all, as each day passes by, you are my rock, even in spirit.

Love you,
Brittnee Lauren

“ Janice ...my sweet friend. The times we shared at the ARC I will always cherish. Your friendship meant the world to me. You kept it real and we're so strong. I miss you so much. GOD is proud of you and I thank him for bringing you into my life. You will always be my friend and I can't wait to see you again when I'm called to heaven. I can't express how hard it is not to talk to you anymore. We laughed, cried, but most of all loved each other. Cherished memories for sure. I will never forget our bond we had.
