

Jerry L. Westbrooks

March 19, 1948 - May 26, 2021

Jerry Lawrence Westbrooks was born in St. Louis on March 19, 1948, to the union of Willie Mae (Lathon) and Clarence Westbrook.

He was truly the light of his Father's life because he had always wanted to have a little boy. He attended Summer High School and graduated in 1967. He played the clarinet in the band. After high school. He joined the Navy in 1968. Where his occupation was an Electrical Repairman in DOT 829.

Jerry had a great sense of humor and a wonderful smile. He was the type of person that never met a stranger. He touched the hearts and lives of countless people striving to ensure joy, happiness, and love to everyone around him.

He was a mentor to his niece, nephews, and was the Uncle they all reach out to for advice or a kind word. Beloved father to sons, Bruce Williams, and Jerry Westbrooks Jr., and Daughters Angela Wright-McAllister (Aaron) who he called Fay and Rosalinda Westbrooks his baby girl. 12 granddaughters, 3 grandsons, 13 great-grandchildren. Also, he leaves behind to cherish his memory one brother, Clarence Grayson, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, sisters and brothers in law, great-nieces and nephews, and dear friends and family members.
