

Joan Williams

September 3, 1945 - November 26, 2011

Joan Marie Williams was one of four children of the late Harry Parker and Eve Weaver, born September 3, 1945.

She finished schooling, started a family and pursued her career at the Division of Family Services. After 32 years of hard and devoted work, she retired. During the time she was there, she became known as "Tina" because of her bubbly attitude.

Joan dedicated her life to God at an early age. She was a member of Union Tabernacle and devoted her time by joining the Health Unit. She also dedicated her time in taking care of her loved ones and having a good time wherever she could.

After retiring, she devoted her time in caring for her grandchildren with her special friend, Gill Davis also known as Paw/Paw. In her spare time she loved to talk on the phone and just enjoy life.

She was called home the early morning of November 26, 2011. She leaves to cherish her memories: six children, Wallace Williams, Terrance Williams, Drunell Cameron, Ronald Cameron, Jr. Frederick Cameron, and Vicki Cameron, seven grandchildren: Nichole, Domonique, Shayla, Tia, Jequaris, Durenda, Anthony, and beloved Mae Ruth who proceeded her in death, her sister Gloria (Harry) Rankins; and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and a number of those whop referred to her as their mother ar grandma; several close friends, all of whom will miss her dearly
