

Johnny C. Richardson

August 15, 1979 - May 23, 2024

Johnny Clifford Richardson was born on August 15, 1979, in Saint Louis Missouri, to Barbara Lane and Johnny C. Richardson. Johnny was baptized at an early age at Mount Nebo Church and attended Saint Louis Public Schools. Johnny played with an All City Band as a drummer. As a child, Johnny loved to dance and spend time with his family. Johnny was known for being a jokester. He used to say he was the “Park Ranger of the City Streets!” Johnny was known for calling you on the phone and talking to you for hours! Johnny was a kind soul and mean as a rattlesnake, at the same time! When Johnny was in your presence you knew laughter and fun would be had. Johnny was also a hard worker. He successfully hustled money from his older cousin Victoria and his sister N’Kenge, every summer. He would take on their weekly chores, for a small fee! He was relentless. He even convinced his other cousin Kisie to get in on the cash! One summer, Johnny earned so much money, he was able to buy all of us a bomb pop when the ice cream truck came through! Johnny was the youngest of his siblings. Being the baby, and the only boy, he was spoiled by everyone, as if he was an only child.

Johnny Clifford Richardson passed away on May 23, 2024, at Christian Northeast Hospital, at age 44. He was preceded in death by his father, Johnny C. Richardson; his son Alan Romeo Wilkes.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Barbara (James); a son, Carvon; daughters, Andrea, and Zoey; two sisters Shantel and N’Kenge (Ronnie); two sister/cousins Victoria (Tyrone) and Kisie; Uncle Bruce (Martha), Aunt Joe Ann; Niece, Briauna; nephews Brandon and Terrance; and a host of family, and friends.

The family of Johnny Richardson wishes to express our deep appreciation for all the acts of kindness shown during the passing of our loved one. May the grace of God and His blessing be with each of you. For we loved him, but God Loved him more.
