“ I sat in my car for a while thankful I was not driving when I heard that Ken Page, the most talented and nicest legend of Broadway has transitioned.

I saw him on Broadway in the Wiz and Cats and then stopping the show two, or was it three time in “Guys and Dolls” perfectly cast as Nicely-Nicely. I was in awe of the strength and kindness and so much talent he exuded.

He cast me as Louisa in the fantastics. Yes! A black Louisa WAY before the theater awakening and I experienced one on one that kindness and strength and talent...and protection.

My Mom passed away this February. Ken left a voicemail to call him back. I was having a tough time and as I walked the park behind mom’s house, we talked over an hour. We talked about how tough theater was now and how we go forward and what we won’t accept. The great Ken Page was including me when he said, “we’ve earned that.” Months later I got to thank him for that call, that respite, when I attended his show at Catalina Jazz.

I listened to his voicemail again this morning. When he said, “checking to see how your heart is doing”... I just cried. We’ve lost so many this year...this September. Thank you Ken...till we meet again.

*"Try to remember when life was so tender
That no one wept except the willow
Try to remember the kind of September
When love was an ember about to billow
Try to remember and if you remember
Then follow, follow
Deep in December, it's nice to remember
Although you know the snow will follow
Deep in December, it's nice to remember
The fire of September that made us mellow*

*Deep in December, our hearts should remember
And follow, follow, follow"*

“ Ken Page. Ken Page. Ken Page your transformative words ignite our souls: kindness, truth, and love unlock life's most profound riches. We must cultivate and share these precious gifts. Your enduring legacy inspires generations. Five months ago, I was fortunate to witness your brilliance shine at LA's Catalina Jazz Club. (So grateful to have this archival footage to bear witness as I continue to process you not being on this planet). Thank you, dear brother, for your selfless kindness, unwavering friendship, guidance, mastery, and heartfelt encouragement that touched my very essence. Your embracing hugs remain forever etched in my memory. Now, as our newest Ancestor, your radiant spirit continues to illuminate our path. Rest in Power, beloved one.

Loving Spirit, Ken, you inspired and lifted we mortals throughout your too-brief journey here. You gave us your Love, Hope and Joy. You believed that you could fly, and you did. You took us with you on that magical trip that was life writ large. ☐ Yours is a masterful soul.
