

Loreen Troupe

October 18, 1914 - December 28, 2017

Loreen B. Troupe was born October 18, 1914 in West Point, Mississippi. God called her to rest on December 28, 2017. She was born into the union of Chester and Erma Harris. Loreen was the third child of twelve. Her parents and siblings Harold, Robert, Claude Sr., Spergeon, Flemmon, Lorenzo, Island, Earline, Lucille, and Mary all preceded her in the death.

Loreen and her family all moved to Saint Louis, Missouri at an early age. She started working for the Father's of the Vatican Home and that's where she met and married Roosevelt Troupe. To this union, she never mothered any children but she did find a special place in her heart for her niece, Marilyn Taylor, and two nephews Jerry and Flemmon Dorsey. They were the love of her life, she spoil them rotten!!

Loreen was a very spiritual person she was good at analyzing her family's dreams, some would call her "Third Eye." She loved to fish and eating that fish with her brothers.

She leaves the cherish her memory: one brother Florzell Harris, and seven nieces and nephews: Vickie Taylor, Wendell, Lynn, Barbara, Jerry, Randy,

Barry, and Flemmon Dwon Sr.; a host of great and great-great nieces and nephews, and a very special thanks to a special niece LaShay Black Dorsey, who cared for her very well and also a special thanks to Tiffany Bradswell.

Loreen lived a very long and full life; so I am sure she is saying to those shedding a tear today, one of her favorite sayings, “Just Throw It Out The Window.”
