

Louvella Williams

February 26, 1936 - January 8, 2021

Louvella Williams was the fifth child born to Cleveland and Sattie Simmons of Collinsville, Mississippi February 16, 1936.

Both parents preceded her in death along with her brothers Willie B., Odell, and Cleo Simmons.

Louvella attended public and high school in Collinsville, Mississippi. She was baptized at the Pleasand Hill Church at the river nearby. She kept her faith and trust always in God.

Louvella departed her life at 4:40 AM at Barnes Jewish Hospital Friday morning, January 8, 2021.

In 1956, Louvella moved to Saint Louis, Missouri because she was asked to babysit her brothers children. Later she met and married the love of her life James Williams on December 21, 1958. Jim and Louvella were a pair, they did everything together. For part-time work, Jim and Louvella worked together for 40 years in housekeeping. Louvella loved to go shopping, going to the gambling casinos, sewing and cooking. Television soaps was her thing. She loved family reunions. She contributed to anything to keep it going because she knew family was important to her and her children.

She leaves to cherish our memory: a loving and devoted husband Jim, two sons James and Jerry Williams, her brother E.B. Simmons of Detroit, Michigan, her sister Ruby McWilliams of Memphis, Tennessee, and a host of relatives and friends.
