Tribute Wall

BW

“ My auntie will surely be missed. I grew up with her. Well, she was a teenager and I was the pesky little niece, eight years old, that spied in on her dates. No matter how much she got upset and screamed out "Beverly Rochelle", I still continued to be the third party on her date. I loved to see her coming, then and as an adult, I loved to hear the stories that she could tell. And no one could call my name the way she could. Every time I called her, or she called me...that was the first thing she said was..."Beverly Rochelle...is this you?

Who is gonna call my name like that, now? (Smile.) I will forever miss her infectious smile and laugh. She had a way of making you laugh with her, as she laughed about everything. Family, it is a tremendous loss, and we are all saddened, but our God is ever present to give us peace and comfort in our hearts. No worries, she is resting with Him.
