

Ms. Mattie V. Coleman

August 19, 1926 - June 18, 2020

Ms. Mattie V. Coleman was born in Cottage Grove, Tennessee, on August 19, 1926, to Noble and Hannie (Jackson) Bennett. She was the fourth of nine children.

Mattie attended public schools in Cottage Grove, TN. She confessed a hope in Christ Jesus at an early age. Her faith was something she practiced her entire life, and she often watched church on Sunday mornings when she could no longer attend.

Mattie relocated to St. Louis, MO as a young adult. She had three children: George, Keith, and Jacqueline. She dedicated her life to caring for and raising her children. Mattie was known for her love of cooking. She was most famous for her homemade ice cream made in her original crank-style ice cream maker.

Her coffee table full of photos and mementos was a testimony of her love for family and friendship. The same love she had for her immediate family spread to her extended family and friends. Her honesty, humor, and wit made her a joy to be around. When you came for a visit, she wouldn't let you leave without sharing a story about her life or her sage (even if unsolicited) advice. Short visits would turn to long visits because she wouldn't let you leave without sharing a meal.

Mattie was blessed to see 93 years before departing this life on Thursday, June 18, 2020, and left her family with a lifetime full of memories to treasure. She was preceded in death by her son Keith, her siblings RP Bennett, Captora Bennett, Stanley Bennett, LaVerne Bennett, Katie Bennett, George Bennett, Roy Bennett, and her parents.

Left to cherish her unforgettable memory are her son George (Linda); daughter Jacqueline; one brother Charlie Bennett; grandchildren Charonda, Raquel (Deaundre), Brittany (Darnell); four great-grandchildren: Jerrica, Maya, Jeremiah, Theodore; two great-great-grandchildren: Zniah and Zneah; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
