

Mrs. Tomlin

August 15, 1956 - March 2, 2013

On August 15, 1956 a star, (Permiller Clemons) was born to Robert and Viola Clemons. Perm (as she was affectionaly called) was the third child out of six siblings. Both parents, four brothers and one great grandchild preceded her in death.

Permiller accepted Christ as her personal Savior at the New Northside Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Willie J. Ellis. In 1970 Permiller was crowned MS New Northside.

Permiller was educated in the St. Louis Public School District and graduated from Metro High School June 1972.

Permiller was a dedicated foster parent. Several weekends in the school year she was determined to share her home with disadvantaged youth. Her love for children and thier education was exemplified through her work as a Drop-Out Prevention Counselor at Vashon High School.

On January 30, 1987 Permiller was united in holy matrimony to Freddie Tomlin. Permiller's four children (Chelesa, Keesha, Elbert and Kellen) along with Freddie's three children (Bernard, Bryant and Lawanda) were raised together in an enviroment of love. Permiller and Freddie taught their children how to respect others and instilled in them great family values.

Permiller will be missed and precious memories cherished by her loving and devoted husband, Freddie; daughters, Chelesa (Thearon); Lawanda, Keesha; sons, Elbert (Tarita); Kellen (Monet'), Bryant and Beranrd; twenty seven gradchildren; six great grandchildren; one sister, Gloria Shelton; one godbrother, Cornelius Easley; one goddaughter, Leah Easley; eleven sister-in-laws, eight brother-in-laws, a devoted and compassionate honorary daughter, Donna; a loyal and loving best friend, Angela Lattimore good friend Shirley Lanier a host of neices, nephews, cousins, neighbors of Velda Village Hills, and friends.
