Robert Lee Brown was born on July 18, 1928, to proud parents James and Willie Brown in Parkdale, Arkansas. Robert received his education in Parkdale, Arkansas. He later met Elouise Pruitt. Robert and Elouise were married on November 20, 1948, and to this union, eight children were born. Robert was a very strong man and worked as a construction worker until he became ill. Robert enjoyed going fishing, cooking, watching sports and old western shows on TV, and working on cars was another passion for him. Robert taught his children how to clean and cook fish as well. Robert was a great father and grandfather. He lived a long prosperous life where he enjoyed five generations of loving and caring for his family.
