

Roy Lee Morris

August 15, 1946 - June 24, 2017

Roy Lee Morris was born August 15, 1946 in Black Hawk, Mississippi to John and Ruth Ann Morris. He is preceded in death by his parents, John and Ruth Ann Morris, his siblings William E. Morris, Janitorial E. Morris, Joe L. Morris, John W. Love, Alice L. Applewhite, Clara L. Amos, Luevilla H. Love, Annie M. Reeves, and his eldest son, Timothy Neal.

Roy professed a love for Christ at an early age at Bethel Christian Methodist (CME). Roy was educated at the Black Hawk School, and North Vaiden High School. He was drafted by the United States Army and fought for his country during Vietnam War where he saw combat. He received a variety of metals and honors during his time in the Army.

After his time in the Army he worked a variety of jobs. But he finally settled on a career with the United States Postal Service where he worked until his retirement after almost 40 years of employment.

Roy enjoyed repairing things from cars to lawn mowers to bikes. Fishing, biking, and collecting various types of memorabilia were just a few more of his hobbies. Roy enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and helping others. He was affection known as the "Favorite" Uncle to many of his nieces and nephews.

Roy was a faithful and long time member at Transformation Christian Church & World Outreach Center.

Roy leaves to cherish his memories: his children, Amethyst, Fareda (Eric Sr.), Roy D., Rolisha, and Royal; his grandchildren, Adreaun, Darryl Jr., Alyssa, Nori, Eric II, Brooke, Mio and Alicia; his siblings, Allie Morris, Rosie M. Morris, Essie L. Peterson, Earl Rias, Marshall Morris, Willie Love and C. W. Morris, and a host of family and friends.
