

Roy Smith

June 30, 1965 - May 24, 2021

Roy Dean Smith was born in Las Vegas, Nevada on June 30, 1965, to Patricia Sykes and Robert Feaster. Roy was preceded in death by his father Robert Feaster and his brother Darren Demetrius Smith.

Roy accepted Christ at a young age. Roy was a God-fearing man that truly loved the Lord and always put God first.

Roy was educated through the Saint Louis Public School System at O'Fallon Tech. After high school, Roy graduated from a trade school. He later became employed with Control Tech Automation for 26 years until his failing health prevented him from continuing to work.

Roy had a great passion for his job duties that was performing at Control Tech Automation and did so with so much pride.

Roy had a great passion for music, writing music, and producing music. Roy had a great voice. Roy loved to sing and did so with so much pride. Roy was also a wonderfully gifted artist. Roy had so many talents that God blessed him with.

Roy had a great sense of humor and a wonderful smile. He was the type of person that never met a stranger. Above all, Roy loved the Lord and loved to witness to whomever he came in contact with.

Roy touched the hearts and lives of countless people striving to ensure joy, happiness, and love to everyone around him.

Roy had a fiancée that was very special and dear to his heart. Roy called her his "Baby Cakes" and "Honey Bunny." Roy also had one and only one niece, Joyce Garner-Smith that he loved and cherished so much, she was very special to him.

Roy leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother Patricia Sykes, his grandparents Robert and Earnestine Stiles, Sandra Lawson Roy's fiancée, Joyce Garner-Smith his niece, aunts, uncles, as well as numerous cousins and friends.
