

Sheila Diane Robinson

June 4, 1953 - December 12, 2015

Sheila Diane Sims-Robinson was born to Shirley Sims and Kenneth Elliott on June 4, 1953 in Saint Louis, Missouri. She was the first born to this union of six children.

Sheila was nurtured in a Christian home. She visited several churches over her lifetime. She believed in God and put Him first in all things in her life. She was baptized at an early age at the Upper Room Church of God where she also attended.

Sheila was educated in the St. Louis Public School System. She worked in the healthcare field at the State Hospital as a CNA; she also worked at Crown cafeteria as a cook. After working numerous jobs she became the caregiver for the family and friends, which she loved doing dearly.

Sheila had one biological son Larry D. Sims who was her pride and joy. She loved her son dearly and she talked about him often. She was a mother figure to all children that came her way. She enjoyed music and dancing. Her favorite words while dancing were "Exercise Your Body." She was the life of the party; she knew how to lift everyone's spirit with jokes.

To cherish her memories she leaves behind her son, Larry D. (Barbara) Sims; grandchildren, Lawrence (Kelly) Thompson, Larry (Ashley) Thompson, and LaCrystal Sims; great-grandchildren, Davon Thompson, Adella Thompson, LaJayden Thompson, and Jc-Eon Thompson; her mother, Shirley Sims (Alfred) Austin; her sisters, Verdelle Sims (Willie) Flood, Hope Sims, Cassandra (Barry) Sims, Marneese Sims, Kimm Elliott, and Kimberly Elliott; her brothers, Michael Sims, Derrick Hamilton, and Kenneth Elliott Jr., and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family that loved her.
