

Veronica Lewis Ford

February 1, 1956 - August 26, 2020

Mrs. Veronica Lewis Ford was born February 1, 1956, to the union of the late Tom and Lela Ford in Saint Louis, Missouri.

She was educated in the St. Louis Public School System.

Veronica confessed her faith in Christ at an early age.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Regine Lewis, there were no children born to this union.

Veronica was such a fun loving person to all that knew her, she was the life of the party, dancing was her thing and everyone loved her famous bowl of ramen noodles.

Her biggest accomplishment was when she turned her life to Christ and became a faithful member of Memorial Baptist Church on April 5, 2009.

Veronica made her transition from this life on Wednesday, August 26, 2020 at 12:55 P.M.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Veronica Ford; her grandson Tobyron Shaw; her sister Colleen James; and her two brothers Gregory Ford and Michael Ford.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children Lela Ford, Antonio Ford, and Deon Davis; three grandchildren Victoria, Aundre, Miriah and Mya; four great grandchildren Ly'riq, La'Jyan, Demi, and A'niya; three sisters Frankie Alexander, Diana and Marie Porter; three brothers Louis, Melvin, and Jimmy; a very special friend, Mr. Ernest Irvin, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends and a special thanks to Mrs. Harriet Bond.
