“ My sincere condolences to the entire Quinn family. She held the titles of sister, wife, mother, sister-in-law, auntie, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Auntie Zelma was our Prayer 🙏 Warrior, and Lord have mercy she could pray, and when she prayed, I'm a witness God hear her prayer. Our families have another heavenly angel looking over us all. She is gone from our sight, but forever in our hearts. We will miss our auntie Zelma more than words can express. Continued prayers for your strength during this difficult time. Love to you all 💖

“ Mrs. Quinn was a beautiful soul. She was my mother's best friend (Lena Triplett). They use to talk on the phone almost everyday. They were truly friends. My family met the Quinn family when we both lived on Ashland some time ago. Mrs. Quinn always treated me and my siblings with love and care as my mother would have. My mother passed in 2009 so now they can sit and talk as much as they want.

*My condolences to the entire Quinn Family.
